

Canadian Gambling Digest: Addendum

CANADIAN PARTNERSHIP
for RESPONSIBLE GAMBLING

The present document contains the following updates to the Canadian Gambling Digest (Canadian Partnership for Responsible Gambling, 2004):

Page 4: Table 8

In Saskatchewan, Total Revenues were $55,685,851. Across the country overall, Total Revenues were $1,074,332,537 (not $1,057,205,610).

Page 4: Table 9

In Nova Scotia, Slots Revenues were $32,426,551. In British Columbia, Total Horse Racing (Tax) Revenues were $1,878,000 (not $14,487,370), while Total Revenues were $672,815,000 (not $685,424,370). In Saskatchewan, Total Ticket Lottery Revenues were $12,499,265 (not $43,400,000) and Total Revenues were $247,514,663 (not $278,415,398). Across the country overall, Total Revenues were $6,282,345,227 (not $6,325,855,332).

Page 5: Chart 2

In Saskatchewan, the Percentage of Government Revenue Derived from Gaming was 5.1 (not 5.7). Across the country overall, the average Percentage of Government Revenue Derived from Gaming was 3.2 (not 3.0).

Page 5: Table 10

In Alberta, Total Revenues were $125,418,000 (not $205,752,000). Across the country overall, Total Revenues were $585,774,805 (not $666,108,805).

Page 6: Table 11

In Saskatchewan, Distributions to Charity were $33,267,624 (not $15,300,000). In Nova Scotia, Distributions to Charity were $239,000 (not $39,000).

Page 6: Chart 3

In British Columbia, the Percentage of Government Gaming Revenue Spent on Problem Gambling was 0.49 (not 0.48). In Saskatchewan, the Percentage was 1.72 (not 1.53). Across the country overall, the average Percentage of Government Gaming Revenue Spent on Problem Gambling was 0.87 (not 0.85).

In Saskatchewan, the number of Total Clients was unavailable (not 687) and Total Counsellors was 16.5 (not 42).