

FEAR OF POWER

You create rules for others,
Just to see your power bothers,
Not to be gentle or handsome,
So that you are too fearsome!

You create rules for yourself,
Thinking self is a magical elf;
Though your decision is unmindful;
You've already been fearful!

By being fearsome, my friend!
You are towards a fiery end;
For you are out of friendly vicinity,
To be forsaken by the community!

By being fearful, my friend!
You feel low you never intend,
For you are timid infinity,
To miss many an opportunity!
